MUSEO DEL TEATRO

The space

The Museo del Traje stands out for its avant-garde architecture as well as its direct contact with nature. Its possibilities are endless, offering great versatility with multifunctional spaces that adapt to different types of events, both indoors and outdoors.

Inside the Museo del Traje, visitors can enjoy the evolution of clothing from the 16th century to the present day. During the tour through its various rooms, you will find costumes, jewelry, and accessories, originating from the work of several designers, such as Mariano Fortuny or Balenciaga.

Catering service

At Alabardero Catering & Experiences, we are the exclusive catering service for Café de Oriente Museo del Traje.

We are committed to providing gastronomy with high-quality products, seasonal and locally sourced ingredients, as well as products with Designation of Origin. All of this is led by our chef, Benjamín Alloza.

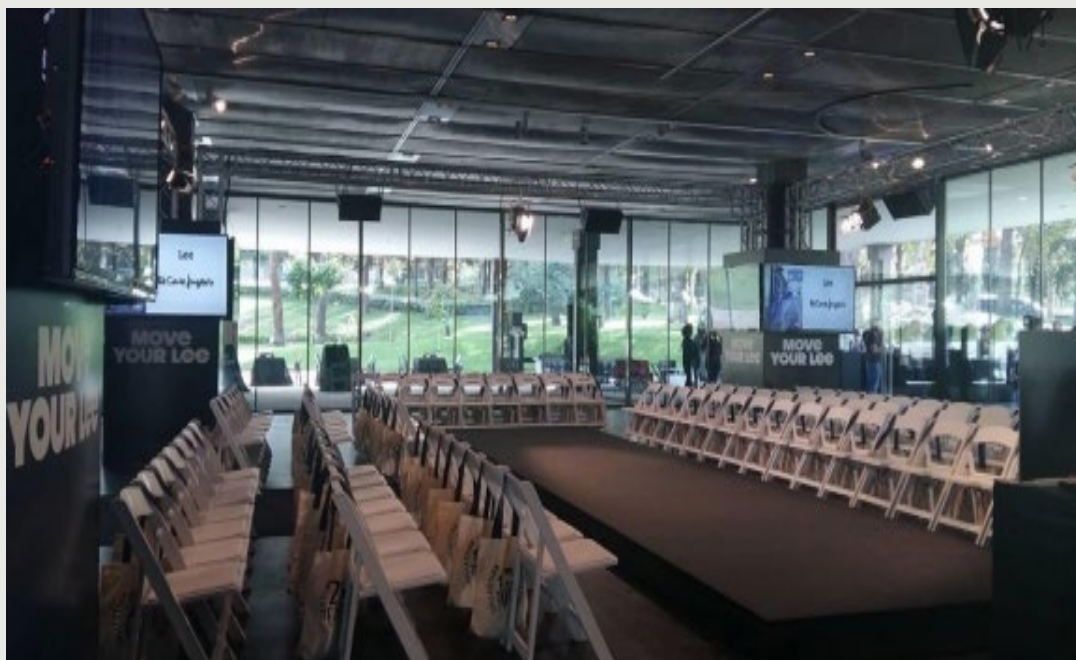

In addition, among a wide variety of menu options, we offer tailored choices for individuals with allergies and intolerances.

Alabardero Catering & Experiences is qualified to host events with Halal and Kosher cuisine. We also have expertise in creating eco-friendly events, offering an ecological gastronomic proposal with special attention to sustainability and reducing carbon footprint.

We want the experience to be complete and with every detail taken care of. That's why our clients also enjoy the service of advice for decoration and customization of their event.
